Dueling portraits emerged Friday of the two men arrested in connection with the brutal beating of a baseball fan at Dodger stadium as court records reveal criminal pasts and neighbors described the men as friendly, baseball-loving fathers.

The men are Louie Sanchez, 29, and Marvin Norwood, 30, who were taken into custody Thursday

Records released today provide new insight into the makeup of the Occupy L.A. protest. According to LAPD's arrest records, the occupiers tend to be young, white, male and local. But those arrested also include people of all ages and races/ethnicities — and from all across the country. The protest filled the park outside Los Angeles City Hall until a mass arrest early Wednesday morning booked more than 280 protesters.

Travis Solorio, 26

Died Feb. 5, 2012

Travis Solorio, a 26-year-old Latino, was shot and killed Sunday, Feb. 5, in the 9300 block of Tamarack Avenue in Sun Valley, according to Los Angeles County coroner's records.

Solorio, who lived in Sun Valley, got into a dispute with a neighbor Sunday night, the Los Angeles Police Department said.

Other people showed up during the dispute, police said, and one of them drew a gun and shot Solorio. He was pronounced dead a short while later at a local hospital.

Detectives had not established a motive for the killing, the LAPD said.

At least 21 homicides have been reported within two miles of Sun Valley since January 2007, according to a Times Homicide Report database.

Anyone with information in Solorio's slaying is asked to call Det. J. Martinez or Det. H. Gahry at (818) 834-3115.

Forbes Earnings Preview: Dell

By Narrative Science

Analysts foresee Dell (DELL) announcing decreased profits on Tuesday, February 21, 2012, when it reports its fourth quarter earnings. Despite this, they are generally optimistic about the stock.

What to Expect:

Analysts are expecting Dell to come in with earnings of 51 cents per share, 3.8% less than a year ago when it reported earnings of 53 cents per share.

Analysts are projecting earnings of $2.13 per share for the fiscal year.

Revenue is expected to be $15.93 billion for the quarter, 1.5% higher than the year-earlier total of $15.69 billion. For the year, revenue is expected to come in at $62.03 billion.

Trends to Watch For:

The company's profit has been growing for the past three quarters. The 8.6% year-over-year growth in net income in the most recent quarter came after the 63.3% profit growth in the second quarter and the more than twofold rise in the first quarter.

Revenue dropped year-over-year in the third quarter, breaking the three-quarter streak of revenue growth. Revenue fell 0.2% in the third quarter and rose 0.8% in the second quarter, 1% in the first quarter and 5.3% in the fourth quarter of the last fiscal year.
