of All Letters.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Five Standard Oil letters and one telegram were to-day presented to the Senate Committee investigating campaign funds by William Randolph Hearst. Two of the letters from John D. Archbold, relating to the loan of $50,000 to ex-Senator J. B. Foraker, have already been published. Two of the others related to bills that Mr. Arch-seemed reluctant to discuss in any way how the correspondence had come into his possession. He was also reluctant to give to the committee still other letters in his possession, which he described as of little interest. On the committee's insisting, however, he promised to send it the rest of the correspondence in full. The new letters and telegram submitted by Mr. Hearst are as follows:

Exhibit H-2, (Telegram.)
Western Union Telegraph Company,
Philadelphia, Penn., — 28, 1903.
Mr. John D. Archbold, Standard Oil Company,
28 Broadway, New York:

Your letter of the 13th instant was received yesterday on my return from a trip in British Columbia. I have wired Senator Aldrich to make an appointment with him to discuss the matter referred to. I can see you in New York any day if you have any suggestions to make. I think the matter is of considerable importance, and I can show Senator Aldrich where such an appointment would be desired. If necessary, I can talk to you over the phone from the headquarters of the Republican State Committee, 1417 Locust Street, Philadelphia, where I shall be during the present month.

Permit me to improve this opportunity, also, to express my high appreciation of your most courteous and efficient action in response to our request regarding the consideration of the Subsidy bill matter with Mr. Griscom.

Very truly yours, JOHN D. ARCHBOLD.

In five years, a computer program will win a Pulitzer Prize — and I'll be damned if it's not our technology.

U MAD BRO?

1989 Bill Dedman The Atlanta Journal and Constitution

For his investigation of the racial discrimination practiced by lending institutions in Atlanta, reporting which led to significant reforms in those policies.

2013 Sun Sentinel *Sun
Sentinel*, Fort Lauderdale, FL

For its well documented investigation of off-duty police officers who recklessly speed and endanger the lives of citizens, leading to disciplinary action and other steps to curtail a deadly hazard.
